

OPEN COMMUNITY FORUM

Helping Our Children Be Safe and Healthy

In the wake of the recent tragedy in Newtown, Connecticut, people everywhere are struggling to make sense of it. You are invited to Meridian Health Services' free community forum with professionals who can help you learn how to keep your children safe and healthy. A Q&A session will follow a panel discussion with noted professionals and educators to address children's safety and health.

"Protecting Our Children"

Community Education Forum

Wednesday, January 23

5:30 - 7:30 p.m.
Open to the public

Meridian Health Services' Suzanne Gresham Center

Specialty center for children and family programs

3620 W. White River Blvd. • Muncie, IN 47304

Scheduled Panel Participants include:

- Dr. Noha Minshawi - Child Psychologist and Clinical Director of the Autism Treatment Center at Riley Hospital for Children where she provides parent training in children behavioral interventions
- Bob Coles Jr., LCSW - Vice President of Clinical Services at Meridian Health Services
- Steven R. Hall, Ed.S - Superintendent of Delaware Community Schools
- M. Tim Heller - Superintendent of Muncie Community Schools
- Stephen R. McColley - Superintendent of Wes-Del Community Schools
- Dr. Jennifer McCormick - Superintendent of Yorktown Community Schools
- Al Rent - Panel Moderator, Ball State University, Meridian Health Services board member

MERIDIAN
HEALTH Services
Physical. Mental. Social Well-Being.

Meridian Health Services is a local resource for you, your loved one, friend or child. We help thousands of people obtain physical, mental and social well-being through integrated healthcare.

We can help with a wide range of services offering family medical care, behavioral health and human services.

For more information, please call 866-306-2647 or visit www.MeridianHS.org